Indoor Ceremonies

Indoor ceremonies at Ashley House offer an elegant and atmospheric setting for couples who want the beauty of the venue without depending on the weather.

The Drawing Room provides a refined, romantic backdrop, complete with period features and a serene ambience that feels intimate yet timeless. Couples can style the room to match their chosen theme, and the presence of our vintage grand piano adds a touch of classical charm. Perfect for live music as you make your entrance or exchange vows.

We can arrange for a wedding planner to help plan or coordinate your day if you so wish. We are here to help and can offer some of the items that you might need

For celebrations that flow effortlessly from preparation to ceremony, the main house offers a collection of beautifully appointed rooms that enhance the experience. The Georgian styled Sitting Room overlooks the gardens and is the perfect place to relax and catch up with friends and family, while the elegant Dining Room can host a relaxed dinner the night before, helping everyone settle in and feel at home.

With every indoor space designed to be both welcoming and versatile, Ashley House ensures your ceremony feels personal, polished, and completely unforgettable - no matter the weather outside.

Outdoor Ceremonies

Ashley House offers several beautiful outdoor ceremony spaces, each with its own character and breathtaking views. Our main garden ceremony area overlooks the rolling paddocks and the sweeping Welsh valley that lies just beyond the gardens - a truly unforgettable backdrop as your guests relax on the lawn surrounded by mature trees and vibrant flower beds.

You can also choose to take your vows on the front steps of the house, elevating your position for a striking and elegant moment as you stand before your guests.

For couples seeking something more intimate, the Venetian garden gazebo provides a romantic setting tucked within the grounds, perfect for sharing your vows in a peaceful, secluded corner of the estate. Every outdoor space can be styled with your chosen colours, florals, and décor to reflect your wedding vision.

Whatever your style, the gardens at Ashley House give you the freedom to choose the ceremony setting that feels just right for your day.

Tailored Celebrations in the House or Gardens

Invite your guests to enjoy the wedding breakfast in a marquee reception set in the front garden by the tennis court - offering stunning views of the valley and ample space for dining, d

The cottage courtyard offers a wonderful space for guests to eat, drink and relax together. The barn facing the courtyard is a great space to dance and enjoy music till late to create that perfect wedding party celebration.

Ashley House is your home throughout the celebrations so why not welcome the family the night before your wedding with a home cooked dinner in our spacious kitchen. There is a large range cooker, a central log burner and large dining table, creating a cosy and homely atmosphere where everyone can catch-up and relax.

For more intimate gatherings, the house's elegant dining room seats up to 20 adult guests, perfect for a formal dinner or a private celebration after the ceremony. With exclusive use of the grounds and house, you're free to design your dining experience to your style.

Onsite Accommodation

Ashley House offers elegant, character-filled accommodation within our beautiful Victorian home, giving you and your guests a luxurious and relaxing base for your wedding celebrations.

The main house features seven beautifully furnished double bedrooms, each with peaceful views over the gardens and surrounding countryside. With exclusive use, your closest family and friends can settle in and enjoy the relaxed, homely atmosphere - from the cosy lounges and large country kitchen.

The honeymoon suite provides generous space and facilities for the bride to prepare for her special day, and the estate also includes a private tennis court, adding to the charm and amenities available throughout your stay.

♡ Four separate cottages on site, ideal for friends and family
♡ Dedicated spaces for makeup, bridal parties and groomsmen alike

The Cottages

Alongside the main house, Ashley House offers four charming self-contained cottages, each providing a comfortable and private retreat within the grounds.

Ideal for relatives, friends, or members of the wedding party who prefer their own space, these cottages allow guests to stay close to the celebrations while enjoying the independence of their living areas, and bedrooms. Together, they create a welcoming village-like feel around the estate, giving everyone the freedom to relax and settle in for the duration of your wedding stay.

Things To Note

Prime Location & Transport Links
Our wedding venue combines countryside tranquillity with easy accessibility. Just a short drive from the market town of Newtown and close to the England-Wales border, we're perfectly placed for guests travelling from across Powys, Shropshire, and beyond. Excellent road links and nearby rail connections make the journey simple, whether your guests are coming from Cardiff, Birmingham, or further afield.

Ample Parking
There is generous on-site parking throughout the estate.

On-site Activities
Enjoy some fun and friendly competition with our on-site tennis court and a range of wooden games for guests throughout the weekend, including a pool table, table football and bowles, or watch the nesting house martins in the eaves.

Attractions
Located in Kerry in the heart of Powys, Ashley House is surrounded by some of Mid Wales' most beautiful landscapes and visitor attractions. Guests can explore scenic walking routes, peaceful woodland trails, and charming local villages, all just a short drive away. For those a little more adventurous, the stunning sights of Pistyll Rhaeadr waterfall and Lake Vyrnwy are a little further afield.
